

i don't understand why this issue is even being considered. i pay for satellite radio, so why should i not be able to get weather and traffic information? because i'm not paying the NAB's members instead?